

Nancy Corzine

LIVING ROOM

Expansively proportioned, beautifully articulated, architecturally detailed rooms are the designer's greatest challenge and greatest gift. For Nancy Corzine, this space is all that, and more. It has, for her, a Proustian quality, reminiscent of certain memorable places in Paris. Hence, the decor is elegant, restrained and suited to the pleasures of a well-lived life. Corzine arranges an assortment of styles and periods. The contemporary sectional, center table, secretary and many other elements were designed by Corzine for her collections.
